Idaho Dance Theatre hosts Dancing Through the Decades on March 6, 2010 along with our “Celebrity” Dance Competition.

Idaho Dance Theatre is inviting everyone to attend their 21st Anniversary Gala Celebration “Dancing through the Decades” – at the Powerhouse Event Center on Saturday, March 6, 2010. We are celebrating the 80’s and music from Michael Jackson. The event features a buffet dinner, a no-host bar, silent and live auction with auctioneer Larry Gebert, music and dancing to Tracy Underwood Connection from 9pm-midnight, and our second annual Celebrity Dance Competition.

Our celebrity dancers include Natalie Hurst (Channel 2 Anchorwoman), Brandon Medica (Engineer @ Meridian Fire Dept.), Laetitia Babcock (Detective @ Meridian Police Dept.), Lance Sellers (Firefighter @ Boise Fire Dept.), Michelle Stark (Channel 6 Morning News Anchor), Stephen Price, (Elks Rehab), Dr. Heidi Reeder, PhD (Professor Boise State University) plus some possible surprises. Each celebrity will be in a small group with one of our professional company dancers and perform for the judges’ votes! Don’t miss out on the fun – Come out and support your favorite Celebrity! Gonzalo Valdez, IDT Company Dancer, is our choreographer for this fun show.

Doors open at 6:00 pm for a fun evening to celebrate 21 years of performing contemporary dance for the Treasure Valley – and to raise money for IDT Dancer salaries and take the company into the future for the next twenty years. Tickets and information are available on the website at www.idahodancetheatre.org or by calling 331-9592. Donations are still being accepted for auction items. Cash donations if you are unable to attend the gala are encouraged as well.
